Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Every year in South Dakota, hundreds of farm and ranch residents suffer unnecessary injury and sometimes disability and death from accidents on the farm; and,

WHEREAS, The annual cost of these accidents totals untold thousands of dollars. These statistics do not reveal the depth of personal loss and grief experienced by the injured and their families; and,

WHEREAS, This regrettable situation need not continue. The waste of life, limb, property and financial resources can be sharply reduced if rural people take a decisive stand for better safety and health. Accidents and job-related illnesses can be averted by safe and proper methods, control of hazards, and use of protective equipment when appropriate. In addition, guidance in safety and health is readily available to all from the Extension Service, safety councils, volunteer safety leaders and the manufacturers of the products we use; and,

WHEREAS, A safer agricultural environment will be more productive and better able to meet the tremendous food and fiber needs of our nation in the decade ahead:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of September 16 through September 22, 1984, as in South Dakota, and I urge the state's farmers and ranchers to adopt safe and sensible work practices and to remove unnecessary home and workplace hazards. Further, I call upon those who serve agricultural producers to become full partners in farm and community safety efforts.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fourteenth Day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Four
